A note about today's session

Some of the conversations we have today may be distressing or upsetting, if at anytime you need to pause or step away, please do what is best to help keep yourself safe and protect your well-being.

Starting in a good way

Grounding our session in respectful dialogue

- This is a discussion and dialogue
- Everyone is encouraged to participate
- Let others have an opportunity to speak
- Listen and respect other perspectives
- Anything else we are missing?

What is a Comprehensive Community Plan?

A CCP is a strategic plan for our Nation that is developed by our Members and for our Members.

The process of creating a CCP involves bringing the entire Nation together to share ideas for a better future.

What is a CCP?

A CCP is focused on all aspects of Member wellbeing, including health, governance, culture, housing and infrastructure, the economy, lands, people, places and programs. It:

- Highlights our Nation's strengths and opportunities
- Identifies the issues and challenges that our Members face
- Sets out a shared vision and goals for the future
- Establishes actions and strategies for bringing about desired changes
- Helps guide our leadership and staff in their decision making and day-to-day work
- Opens up funding opportunities

What is a Traditional Territory Stewardship Plan (TTSP)?

A TTSP is a plan that is focused on land use and stewardship on a territory-wide scale.

This plan will help our Nation manage land use issues and look after key values and important places, based on the priorities that Members identify through our planning process.

What is a TTSP?

- Grounded in Ts'il Kaz Koh culture and values
- Establishes a vision and more specific objectives for the management of Ts'il Kaz Koh traditional territory
- Provides clarity on what can be done where within Ts'il Kaz Koh traditional territory (e.g., government, industry)
- Prepares Ts'il Kaz Koh to make decisions that reflect our vision, values, and priorities as a Nation

Workshop Objectives

What are we trying to achieve?

- Build Relationships!
- Come together to discuss Ts'il Kaz Koh's strengths and challenges as a Nation
- Begin to identify a long-term vision and goals for the future

Workshop Objectives

What are we trying to achieve?

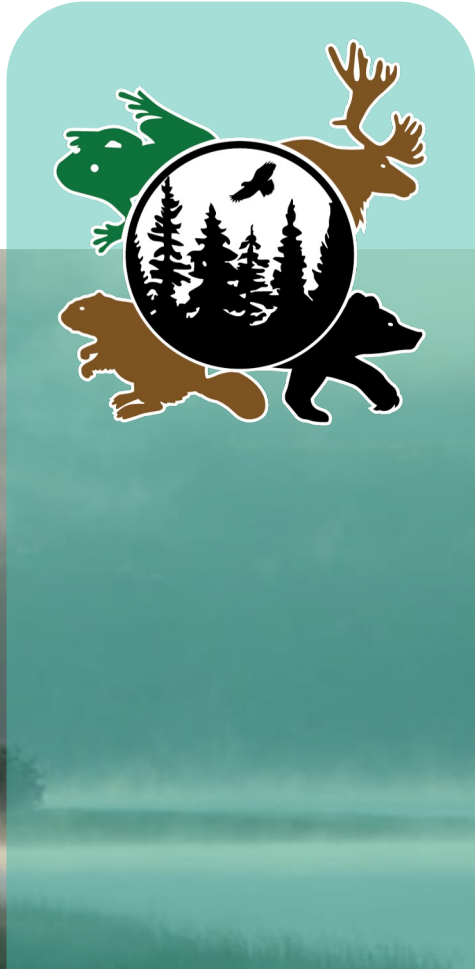

- We want to hear from you!
  - Are there any challenges that you feel are unique to being an urban Member / living away from TKK Lands?
  - If so, is there anything that you want TKK staff and other Members to know about these challenges?

How to participate today

- We will be visiting a series of stations to connect on a variety of topics
- Then, we will have a conversation!
- Feedback Survey (at the end)
  - Let Firelight and the Ts'il Kaz Koh planning team know how we did!

Activity #1 – Station Activity

As you move through this activity keep in mind:

Are there any challenges you feel are unique to being an urban Member living away from TTK Lands?

If so, what do you want Ts'il Kaz Koh staff and other Members to know about these challenges?

Activity #2

Facilitated Discussion

Next Steps

Continuing the conversation

- Fill out our feedback survey and tell us how we did and what we could improve for next time
- Keep an eye out for our ‘What We Heard’ newsletter
- Join us at our next engagement session in 2023!
